Temperance Column.

By the Ocala Temperance Reform Club.

Edited by J. A. Munden.

The Club meets every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in Temperance Hall. The Public are invited.

YESTERDAY'S MEETING.

The Ocala Temperance Reform club held a very interesting and largely attended meeting yesterday afternoon at Temperance hall.

After the opening exercises Miss Nellie Stevens was called upon, who gave an excellent reading on the evil effects of alcohol. Only those who were present can form anything like a just estimate of the valuable thoughts contained in that reading.

Next on the program was Mr. Willie T. Gary, who came forward and made a stirring speech which dealt largely with our young men. He said that those who might be strong in the temperance cause, but who were taunted and sorely tempted, needed to be fired with ambition to become great men—great temperance men—such as Gladstone, R. E. Lee, and others. He spoke of his associates, and of his surprise, upon returning from school, at the sad fact of so many of them having acquired the drink habit. He appealed to the mothers to take a deeper interest in their boys' welfare. The speech was brimfull of clear-cut, convincing truths, and, coming from the source it did, cannot fail to have its influence.

Several others gave encouraging talks. The STAR was highly recommended as a fit paper to be circulated. J. A. Munden was re-elected editor of the Temperance column for another week. The Glee club was not on hand to furnish music, owing to inability of its leader to be present, which was regretted exceedingly.

MAKE YOUR WIFE BARKEEPER.

One gallon of whisky costs about $3 and contains on the average 65 10-cent drinks. Now, if you must drink whisky, buy a gallon and make your wife barkeeper. Then when you are thirsty give her 10 cents for a drink. When the whisky is gone she will have left, after paying for it, $3 50, and every gallon will yield her the same profit. The money she should put away in the savings bank, so that when you have become an inebriate, unable to support yourself, and shunned and despised by every respectable person, your wife may have money to keep you until your time comes to fill a drunkard's grave, and something over to support herself and your children, until some respectable, sober man who is not likely to follow in your footsteps, though he may stand in your shoes, shall ask her to be his wife.
